Currency information

If you haven’t arranged the shuttle bus to pick you up at the airport, please don’t forget to exchange money at the airport if you do not hold any dinars (RS). Euro is definitely the best currency to take to Serbia. While US Dollar, Canadian Dolar and British Pound will be accepted, the commission fee is far greater than the one for Euro. The best is to exchange just a small amount of money (equivalent to €20-30), to pay for transfer to city or hotel. In the BEST WESTERN Hotel M there are ATM and currency exchange machine in the lobby. Also exchange offices can be found at every corner in downtown Belgrade.

The Serbian currency is the dinar (RSD). Each dinar is divided into 100 paras, no longer in use, thus prices at shops are rounded off. Coins come in the following denominations: 1, 2, 5, 10 and 20 dinars. The banknotes come in denominations of 10, 20, 50, 100, 200, 500, 1,000, 2,000 and 5,000 dinars. Western Union money transfers from abroad can be collected from the post office and most banks.
